

Agnes Williams Buckner

March 8, 1914 - February 17, 2015

Agnes Buckner, lovingly known as Mother by most, was born to Mandy Kimball and Paul Williams, Sr. on March 08, 1914, the eldest of three children, in Bovine; a suburb of Pittsburgh, Mississippi.

Mother lived her adolescent and teenage years in Bovine, until she met and married Dave Jones in 1932. They then settled in Detroit, Michigan to begin their new lives together.

Within their union they conceived five children. . Mildred Y. Jones-Berry,
James H. Jones,
Jennie B. Jones-Bryant,
William F. Jones and Lois O. Jones.

Sadly Dave (DaDa) Jones preceded Agnes in passing as did both of her sons and her granddaughter Autumn T. Jones.

In the 1960's Agnes moved to California where she enjoyed most of her years. She later in life met, became friends and married Deacon Lattimore Buckner.

A few years later they relocated to Colorado Springs, Colorado so they could be closer to her brother Paul Williams, Jr.

Sadly Deacon Buckner preceded Agnes in passing.

After the passing of her eldest son James in 2013,

Agnes relocated back to California with the assistance of her grandson, Antonio Vaughn, Sr. so that she would receive love and care from her granddaughters and great granddaughter:
