

Ahmad Crump Almaalik

October 1, 1966 - November 9, 2015

Ahmad Crump Almaalik was born Los Angeles, CA on October 1, 1966. In 1968 the family moved to the Bay Area where Ahmad attended EL Portal Elementary and Helms Junior High School in Richmond, CA. The activities he participated in were martial arts and boxing. In 1980 Ahmad moved to Los Angeles to be with his Grandmother Georgia B. Meeks and his Sister Mrs. Jamila Morton, in the same year he attended Culver City Middle School and Culver City High School, in Culver City, CA. Ahmad returned to the Bay Area and attended Laney College, taking courses in Carpentry and Solar Energy which he earned himself a certificate in Heating and Air Conditioning. Ahmad brought lots of Joy, laughter and smiles to all that knew him. He also was a loving and caring person who looked out for the well being of others. Ahmad will be greatly missed and we all will keep him in our hearts and our memories forever. Ahmad was preceded in death by his Brother Mahmoud Crump in 1994, his Father Maalik Almaalik in 2006 and his younger Brother Ben Jamal Almaalik in 2014.

“ It is so sad to learn that little Ahmy - whose family were our neighbors many years ago - has died. I remember him as a darling toddler who my children liked to carry around and cuddle. All the children were darling - Jamila and little Mahmoud and Mohammed. You have my sympathy and sorrow for your loss.
