

Alison Brooke Maheu

May 31, 1985 - December 23, 2012

Alison (Ali) Brooke Maheu passed on December 23, 2012 at the age of 27 due to a pedestrian accident on December 17, 2012 in Oakland, California. Ali grew up on the rural north coast of California where she was home schooled, excelling in dressage.

A "Living History" overnight stay on the tall ship CA Thayer at Hyde St. Pier began Ali's 8 years of weekly volunteer service. Ali graduated from Santa Rosa Jr. College Phi Theta Kappa and gave the valedictory speech. She graduated from Mills College with top honors Phi Beta Kappa and received the Mill's Biology Prize. She eschewed her opportunity to do graduate work to return to her beloved historic ships, assuming the position of Rigger at the SF Maritime National Historical Park.
