

Antoinette Anderson

September 7, 1952 - August 6, 2012

Antoinette Anderson was born in New Orleans Louisiana on September 7, 1952, to the proud parents Pearlean Grayson and Lewis Anderson. She confessed Christ at an early age uniting with the Greater Faith Baptist Church where she was baptized.

Antoinette attended school in Oakland, California and received her education at Castlemont High School. She loved spending time with her mother dressing in her fancy clothes and always looked forward to her mother cooking or taking her out for a Sunday's meal.

Antoinette loved all of siblings, she enjoyed family time and playing cards and dominos with her mother, sisters, brother and her nephews, basically with anyone that she felt was up for the challenge.

Antoinette had a special bond with all of her children and grandchildren, she had a way of being a mother but not only a mother she was a friend to all of her children and even their friends she would do things like wrestle with her kids just to show them that she was in control even then. She loved to bowl with her children. She would love to show off her bowling skills. Antoinette loved to play BINGO! She loved it so much she worked at the bingo hall for many years. Antoinette had and artistic gift, boy she could draw anything. Antoinette also became a health fanatic, she came to family dinner one year and if you know Angie you know she loves to eat! She began to say I don't eat this I don't eat that! Then the next thing you knew she would up jogging the lake every day. Her hard work definitely paid off because every birthday she would say she was only 21 and still the finest thing walking!

Antoinette was preceded in death by her sisters, Pearl, Pat, Cynthia , step father, Hobart Grayson, grandmother, Oletha Yarbrough, step son, Chaz Williams, and nephew Alan Dewayne Blueford.
