

Ben Jamal Almaalik

September 18, 1987 - January 3, 2014

Remembering.....

Our Ben-Jamal al-Maalik, 26, left us to take his leave to “Yonder northern side of the Winding Waterway” on Friday, January 3, 2014.

Benny was born in Berkeley, California on Friday, September 18, 1987. In 1990 he moved to Bakersfield, California with his mother. Later, he began his schooling there, attending the Edna Brewer Elementary. In 1999 he returned to Oakland where he continued his education eventually attending Oakland Technical High School.

In many ways our Benny mirrored the accomplishments and talents of his Father. Ben’s qualities of introspection were tremendous, for he had investigatory insights into life’s various situations that often reflected novel and important deductions. Our Ben-Jamal had the same humanitarian inclinations as his Father; for he never hesitated in his concern for the welfare of others. Instinctively, he knew and practiced the Golden Rule, which is the Universal Precept.

In Spiritual matters, Benny also sought the wisdom thereof, for he loved the Lord, and was conferred the life-giving ablution of the waters of Baptism, having been Baptized at Paradise Baptist Church.

The love of Family was a mainstay of Benny's personal world-view and whenever there was opportunity for him to lend a helping hand, with alacrity and dispatch would he assume the responsibility. As a kindly and a loving person, Benny's excellent qualities will always remain as a constant for all who knew him.

Ben was the youngest son of his parents and 'baby' Brother of two brothers and a sister.

He was preceded in death by his father, maalik al-Maalik who took his leave to "Yonder northern-side.." in January of 2006.
