June 17, 2023

Bernard Franklin Parker, II was born February

5, 1996 at Alta Bates Hospital in Berkeley, California . At that time his parents were members of Cosmopolitan Missionary Baptist Church where he was dedicated to the Lord under the leadership of Pastor Larry Ashly. At 3 months old the family left California for New York. Bernard went to elementary school at Susan E. Wiley. At Susan E. Wiley his teacher was complaining because he was always chewing on paper. She felt that it was just a habit so without letting his classmates know, she allowed him to chew gum in class. Also, he was always agitated and restless, so the psychiatrist had him take a test, come to find out he was doing 8th grade work on the test so of course they wanted him to skip a grade.

In 2008, we returned to California where he graduated from Fremont High School in
