“ My Sister, My Best Friend, and My Confidant. You are free and for that I am grateful. We will all miss your great wit, your kind, and generous nature, and that infectious laugh!!!! I will miss that bond that sisters share more than words can express. Thank you for teaching me all that you have in this earthly life. I know our Mom and Dad are happy to have you with them again, our grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins alike, When we meet again we will rejoice together. I will not be sad for that would be selfish, but I will be glad in that knowledge of seeing you again one day.

“ I love you Gran 🥰 and I miss you so much!! ❤️ You were such a kind spirit and a loving soul, you always put others before yourself and would do anything for the people you loved. You've taught me so many things that I will never forget. I will cherish all the memories and moments that we've spent together and hold them close in my heart. And when I have babies I'll tell them stories about you and how beautiful, and loving, and sweet you were... how you always gave the best hugs and kisses... cooked the best food and never let us leave the house without an empty belly. Not having you here with me to celebrate special moments, milestones and accomplishments will be hard but I know that you are watching up in heaven and I promise to make you proud. Forever in my heart 💜 🕊️

“ I love you Mom! Thank you for taking me in as your own daughter, helping me raise your grandbabies, being a shoulder to lean and cry on, and showing me not to take any crap from anybody!! Rest in paradise , I'm at peace knowing you are not suffering or in pain anymore. Fly high with the angels, I know you and my mom are watching over us 💜

“ Born Beverly Jo House, the second of six children of Charles H. House, Sr. and Erma J House. Bev as she was affectionately referred to by her family and closest of friends is preceded in death by her parents and infant sister Joyce Ann House.

Bev retired from the University of California, at Berkeley as a Programmer, a vocation she enjoyed. Bev was an enthusiastic crafter always making and designing many things from handmade baby blankets, decorative wreaths, to refinishing antique furnishings. But her most favorite pastime was spending time with her 5 grandchildren whom she was absolutely devoted too. She loved traveling as often as she could and taking cruises to the Caribbean was her absolute favorite.

She leaves to mourn two beautiful children Gina R. Martin-Pacheco, Son-in-law Jose Pacheco, and Felix R. Martin III, Daughter-in-law Debbie Martin, Granddaughter's Brianna Pacheco, Alyssa Pacheco, Tia Martin, Elijah Martin and Remy Martin. 3 Brothers, Charles H. House, Jr. Edward L. House, Michael E. House, and sister Rosemary House, 3 Nieces, 3 Nephews, 1 great Niece and 5 great nephews, as well as a host of other family and friends.

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted”
Matthew 5:4
