

Billy Jene Combs

June 10, 1934 - December 8, 2012

Bro. Billy J Combs was born in Longview Texas on 10 June 1934 to Eld. Frank and Missionary Irene Combs. He was the first child of ten children. In the early thirties Elder Combs wanted a better life for his family and relocated to California.

Billy attended school in Richmond and El Cerrito. His desire was to join the military. He enlisted in the United States Air Force. After his basic training, he was sent to Korea. Before leaving for Korea, he met Mildred. He kept in touch with her by phone. When he returned from Korea, he was stationed at Andrews Air Force Base, Washington D.C.

Billy and Mildred got married in Washington D.C. and joined the Pentecostal Holiness COGIC under the leadership of Bishop Samuel Kelsey. To this union was born two daughters Joyce and Patricia (deceased). At Andrews Air Force Base his commanding officer with a clearance assigned him to maintain President John F. Kennedy's plane, AIR FORCE ONE. These duties continued after Kennedy's assassination with President Lyndon B. Johnson. His assignment in Washington, D.C. ended after 12 years.

After serving the military for twenty two years, he retired at Williams Air Force Base, Arizona. He returned back to California and became a member of the Ephesians COGIC under the leadership of Bishop E E Cleveland. He worked with the Deacon Board, Sunday School, YPWW, Men's Ministry and any other duties he could fulfill to assist the pastor to continue the work of the Lord. After Bishop Cleveland passed away, he continued his faithfulness to the church and to our new pastor Bishop Robert Richard Carr. He was an appointed deacon by the pastor and a voted in Trustee by the pastor and church family.

He so many many times smoked chickens and made sure he had one for his pastor and Sis. Carr.
