“ Carl was in my keyboard class during his Freshman year at Oakland High. It was a pleasure to get to know him. He worked hard to get better and impressed me when he spent several lunchtimes in the Music Room preparing for his recital. Carl was a serious sports fan and we chopped it up frequently. I send my love to his family and friends. RIP Carl.

“ Carl was one of the sweetest students I've ever taught. He studied music with me at Lafayette Elementary. He was so much fun, a truly genuine person with his own, unique point of view. He was true gentleman with great promise. I will always remember Carl with deep affection, and I send love and blessings to his family. Rest in Peace, Carl. Please watch out for all of us until we meet again.
Love, Ms Streich
