

Cathy Ann

January 14, 1960 - March 15, 2020

Cathy Ann was born on January 14, 1960 in Oakland, CA to the union of Enorl Johnson, Jr. and Carolann Johnson. She is the oldest of four children.

Cathy accepted Christ at a young age, and was baptized at Free Gift Missionary Baptist Church in Oakland, California by Reverend J. Henry, where she served in the Junior Choir.

Cathy was educated in the Oakland Unified school district, from Elementary through High School.

Cathy lived her life to the fullest if Cathy wanted to do something nothing or know one was going to stop her. You knew Cathy was in the room before you actually saw her, as her voice was loud and full of cheer. Moving fast, having fun and making others enjoy the moment was who she was. Know one was a stranger to her. Everywhere she went she knew someone . Whether it was a now college aged former child customer, to the employee at the local grocery store. They new Cathy and she knew them . If you were with her you may as well be prepared to wait while they reminisced and shared hugs. Cathy also provided hair care to the less fortunate and those that were sick and shut in which brought her joy.

Cathy joined the New Hope Baptist Church of Union City, California in 1988, under Pastor James Daniels. She remained a member under, Pastor T.P. Fields, and Pastor Reginald B. Easterling. Cathy loved to sing God's praises and served in the New Hope Sanctuary Choir.

Cathy graduated Cosmetology school at 19 years of age, and worked in the field of Cosmetology, hair design and styling for 41 years. She loved beauty and fashion and had her own signature style, beautiful on the outside and beautiful on the inside.

Cathy received the Tracy Press " Best Of Tracy" award several times, her customers absolutely loved her, her work and her warm welcoming free hearted soul.

Cathy had a heart of gold, and if you needed her she was there for you. She assisted and supported the disabled and elderly, going into their homes to provide services.

Cathy had a love for books and was a avid reader. Cathy Ann, enjoyed cooking for family and friends, she especially enjoyed making her famous "Seafood Mukbang."

Cathy was a loving supportive daughter, sister, aunt, relative and friend.
