

Christopher Leslie Williams

December 24, 1963 - August 3, 2021

In Remembrance

Christopher Leslie Williams was born December 24th, 1963, in Berkeley CA. to Leo and Patricia Williams.

Christopher attended Franklin elementary school and Martin Luther King middle school and graduated from Berkeley high in 1982. He also attended college at both Saint Louis Obispo and San Francisco State, which he graduated and obtained a bachelor's degree in international business.

Later in life Christopher worked for Berklee Waste Management and then began working as a longshoreman for the International Longshore & Warehouse Union local number 91. Williams worked at the ILWU until the time of his passing.

Christopher's hobbies included movies, watching sports, traveling, and being the life of the party for many of his friends and family at events. He will be genuinely missed. Christopher leaves behind his father: Leo Williams; four children: Derrick, Brittany, Glory, and Simone; four grandchildren: Chloe, Christian, Alayah, and Jason. As well as aunts, uncles, cousins and a host of friends and acquaintances.

We would like to thank a particular family friend Nene Phillips, Cousin George Carter, and Cousin Gary Martin.
