

Corine Horn

October 4, 1920 - January 25, 2013

Corine McQueen Horn "Nana" was born October 4, 1917, in Camden, Texas, to the late Leonard McQueen and Mollie Mullen-McQueen. Corine was the youngest of 7 children whom all have preceded her in death. In 1937, she married her childhood sweetheart, Woodrow "Papa Horn" who also preceded her in death.

Corine attended the Little Island Baptist Church as a child and after they moved to California she and her husband united with New Gethsemane C.O.G.I.C. Her roots were deeply embedded in God, family, and church community. Her foundation of faith in God was the center of her being. Faith, gave her the ability to love unselfishly and unconditionally. She touched many lives that she came in contact with. We are all fortunate to have had her grace.

Corine was full of life and lived hers to the fullest. She was the embodiment of a good Christian woman; caring, giving, and loving. She loved socializing with her peers and relished being a productive part of the community. She was a volunteer worker and had many hobbies and loved sharing them with friends and family alike. Her favorite past time, was fishing and she'd rather go fishing than to sit down to a Thanksgiving Feast.
