

Craig Anthony Woods

March 21, 1955 - April 27, 2022

Craig Anthony Woods was born to Jeanne Owens and Otis Woods on March 21, 1955, in Hartford Connecticut. Craig was educated in Trenton, New Jersey where his mother taught school. He later went to Pennington Preparatory school and earned his High School Diploma. Craig loved sports especially shooting pool, bowling, table tennis, football, and baseball. Craig decided to leave the East coast and moved to San Francisco, California.

Craig worked for the Iron Works company before joining the San Francisco Police Department. Craig enjoyed working with the street crimes unit, the S.W.A.T. Team, and the R.A.T. Robbery Abatement Unit. Craig excelled at his work and was later interviewed with fellow officer Bill Lanclous for People's Magazine in 1983.

Craig met and married Denise Westbrook and his brother Darryl Williams was the best man. Darryl and Craig go back 48 years from their first Academy Class. Darryl was with Craig during his last few days before he passed. Craig and Denise had a good life together. The grand kids loved him, and he will be most remembered by his sweet smile, his patience, and his kind nature.
