“ Here are a few pics of Dave with cycling friends back in 1989 in Yosemite.

“ Hello. I'm Mike Gill, an old San Francisco friend of Dave's. We were both East Coast transplants and had a mutual love of cycling, which we could now do even in the dead of winter! He was one of the first people I met after moving to San Francisco in 1985. He led weekend rides out of San Francisco, but often north to Marin and south to the Peninsula, as well as some memorable trips to Yosemite National Park. No hills could deter that guy! By the way, all of his rides turned out to be longer than he estimated. Distance didn't slow him down either!

We kept in touch sporadically over the years. I saw him last December (2023) at the house in Berkeley where he lived with Chana. It's time to say goodbye now and fondly recall the good times of discovering the back roads of the Bay Area. RIP, Dave.

“ Hi Uncle Davey. I know you're up there passing through the pearly gates to your new home in heaven. I miss you very much, and my wife Krystle was happy to get to talk to you a few times via the phone.

It was awesome, back in the childhood days, when you would come to CT and visit with us. When I grew up and heard about all the work you put in with the SF transit system, I couldn't help but be filled with pride knowing a relative had been responsible for the progress of an entire city.

You always treated Lauren and me with love and respect, and we'll always be grateful to you and remember you with a big smile on our faces. We love you very much, Uncle Davey...rest well.

“ When I was a little girl, Uncle Davey would visit the house. My friend from across the street and I would draw pictures of him and giggle because we had crushes on him. He was the cool guy with the sunglasses and a tan. I guess we were 5 or 6? I am so glad he found true love with Chana and enjoyed his life to the fullest. May his memory be a blessing.

“ Fond memories of Davey hanging with Dad and I. Great sense of humor. Visited him in SF and we went on a tour around the Bay area in a car with a manual transmission. Yes, on them hills. His apartment on Sutro Hill with Chris and I mesmerized by the nighttime view of downtown SF. So long and thanks for all the great memories
