

Freddie Lee Robertson

November 6, 1934 - October 9, 2022

Freddie's Life Story

Freddie Robertson was born to the union of Rozell Robertson and Myrtle (Davenport) Robertson on November 6, 1934, in Hearne, Texas. Freddie had eleven siblings.

Freddie went to public school in Bryant, Texas. He joined the United States Army as soon as he became of age and was honorable discharged.

He moved to California in 1962 and worked as a Porter for UC Berkeley. He subsequently was hired by the United States Post Office and worked as a letter carrier until he succumbed to a work injury.

He met the love of his life, Rosie Lee Robertson, and married in 1964. This marriage of fifty-eight years created one child, Rodrick, and many years of love, friendship, partnership and respect.

Freddie loved Christ. He was a member of Star Bethel Missionary Baptist Church for 25 years until his health failed. He was on the Board of Trustee and worked in the Sunday School Ministry.

Freddie was a very outgoing and friendly person that would help anybody. To know him was to love him and we will truly miss Freddie.

Parents, Rozell Robertson and Myrtle (Davenport) Robertson, five sisters, and seven brothers preceded him in death.

Leaving to cherish his memory: wife, Rosie Lee Robertson; son, Rodrick Robertson; 2 sisters – Janie Robert and Bertha Dunson of Texas;
host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends.
