

Hattie M Adams

April 29, 1927 - March 15, 2015

Hattie Mae Adams

Passed away peacefully on Sunday, March 15, 2015, at her home in Berkeley, California. Born in Mobile, Alabama on April 29, 1927. Preceded in death by her parents Estella Bucey Bivens, and Hervey Bivens Sr., brother, Hervey Bivens Jr., and sister, Julia Bivens Smith.

After attend business college, Hattie began working with the Federal Government and retired as a Budget Analyst after 36 years.

During her stay in Washington, D.C., Hattie attended the Washington Conservatory of Music and School of Expression. She had a beautiful lyric soprano voice and enjoyed singing with the church choir and at special events.

Hattie's interests included music, reading, and keeping a beautiful home. She considered herself an activist and was outspoken in matters concerning her community and neighborhood.

She was also a generous person, supporting many charities worldwide.