

Henry James Jacobs

March 3, 1954 - April 20, 2019

Henry James Jacobs was the 6th of 7 children born to Wilbert Jacobs Sr. and Catherine Yvonne Jacobs in Gulfport, Mississippi where he was also raised. He lived in New Orleans, Louisiana and in Biloxi, Mississippi where he worked as a ship fitter at Litton Ship Builders in addition to holding various positions with in the construction industry. In 1973 Henry married Charlette Nadine Murdock in Biloxi and from that union they had a daughter, Sonia Jacobs. He moved to San Francisco in 1978 where he worked as a Warehouseman, unloading trucks and as an In-Home Care Provider for the City and County of San Francisco before taking ill.

Henry enjoyed listening to and singing along with Soul and R&B music. He also spent time hanging out with his nephews, practicing and teaching them Karate and watching Kung Fu movies. You could sometimes also find him bike riding around the city with his nieces, nephews and their friends.

He was preceded in death by his Parents Wilbert Jacobs Sr. and Catherine Yvonne Jacobs, brothers Wilbert Jacobs Jr. and Gregory Orlando Jacobs and nephew Darwin Jacobs. He leaves behind to mourn, his daughter, Sonia Jacobs, 2 granddaughters Lyric-Aaliyaa and Aarcon Salida Jacobs, 4 sisters: Mary E. Perkins, Shirley E. Stewart, Wanda Sylvia Ray and Barbara G. Jacobs-Desmuke, 24 nieces and nephews and a host of aunts, uncles, great nieces, great nephews, cousins and friends living here in California and the Gulf Coast area.
