

Herman Sally Jr

December 4, 1954 - January 30, 2020

Herman “Cheekie” Sally, Junior was born December 4, 1954 at 7:06PM at the Herrick Memorial Hospital in Berkeley, California, to the proud parents Herman Sr., and Ollie Mae Sally. Herman was given the nickname Cheekie by his cousin Betty, who proceeds him in death. Herman lived in Berkeley, California all his life, only moving twice. Herman attended Berkeley Unified Schools and was very a popular student in school and in his neighborhood. Herman accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Saviour, at an early age and united with the Morning Star Baptist Church in Oakland, under the leadership of the late Rev. J. Wesley Jacobs. Herman would later united with the New Hope Baptist Church in Oakland, under the leadership of the late Pastor J. T. McCullin.

As a young man, Herman served a tour in the US Army. Upon his return, Herman faced many crises in his life. Some would say, he continuously “fell down”. But, because of his inner desire to do better, he kept getting up. Herman did get up! He became an employee with work ethics many desired to mimic. Herman’s desire to make amends and ask forgiveness of his past, allowed him the opportunity for a second chance at a good life and made him an outstanding Outreach Specialist in the Homeless Veterans Rehabilitation Program. Herman willingly and openly shared his story. As a result, numerous lives were changed and the desire to help someone else get up grew in those he mentored. Herman knew how to Pay It Forward!

Herman loved his family and friends. And, diligently sought also to reconcile and seek the forgiveness of those, he had offended in his past. Herman's public and private prayer was that one day, anyone he had ever offended would accept him as the man he had become. With that same heart, Herman worked hard to atone for the things in his past by obtaining the skills and resources to support others, with their problems. Herman accomplished much as an Outreach Specialist and was respected by both his colleagues and those he mentored.

Cheekie leaves a vacancy in the hearts of many. For, all who knew him, love him.
