

Jacquelyn Theresa Victoria-Asmore

August 21, 1952 - April 3, 2015

Jacquelyn Theresa Victoria-Asmore entered life on August 21, 1952 in San Francisco, Ca to her loving parents, the late Jackson and Maudester Victoria. She was raised in Berkeley, Ca where she attended Franklin Elementary and Garfield Jr. High School. In 1970, she graduated from Berkeley High School and went on to attend The College of Alameda from 1970-1972. Jacquelyn was baptized at an early age at The Church of God in Christ in Berkeley. She discovered the Lord as a precious young child and carried the knowledge, strength, and love of God with her always. She had a successful career at Mason McDuffie Real Estate and The San Francisco Music Box Company for well over 30 years.

Jacquelyn was a loving and faithful wife of 40 years to her husband Cornelius John Asmore. Together they raised their two children Nicole and Aaron Asmore. Jacquelyn, who was also known as Theresa, or "Moochie" by her loving nieces and nephews, had a passion for family and friends. She had a tremendous heart gave unconditional love to EVERYONE she knew. There wasn't a day that passed without her reaching out to family or friends to see how they were doing, wish them a happy birthday, or tell them she loved them. Jacquelyn was known for her feisty yet great sense of humor. She loved to sing, dance, draw, and most importantly, she loved to love!
