“ Childhood "besties"...Janie, Tracie and Jennifer. Jennifer was the kindest next-door friend a girl can have. Riding bikes, backyard sleepovers, barbies, swinging and singing, DANCING, biking, cooking, sun-tanning on the Adairs roof:) One summer, Jennifer made us girls lunch every day...she made the best macaroni-n-cheese and kool-aid. At a young age, I knew how fortunate I was to have her as my friend. I was always my best self when she was with me. We lost contact as adults and this I regret. She was a true angel on earth, always in the service of her God and now she abides with Him. Until we meet again, Tracie Lea.
