

Jose Antonio Rocchild

August 26, 1961 - July 22, 2016

Tony was born in Santurce, Puerto Rico. He lived and attended school in P.R. and in the Bronx, N.Y.

He served in the Army Reserves as an Infantry Scout and earned a Honorable Discharge.

He married the love of his life, Valerie, and together started a family with the arrival of his son Jeremy.

Tony was a skillful and capable handyman and a “jack of many trades.”

Tony faced life’s struggles and challenges head on and at times lost his way. However, love of family kept him and guided him as he would allow.

A seemingly healthy and strong man received the news of his Stage 4 diagnosis in May 2015. Tony lived much longer than anticipated.—and for that we’re grateful.

In a sense, he came full circle, to those whom he loved, Valerie and Jeremy, who opened their arms and home to him during this time as he was attended and supported by loving family.

We love you and you are forever in our hearts. Rest in Peace.
