

Julius Abram

September 9, 1917 - May 6, 2013

Our dearest Julius, Mr. Abs as he was lovingly known, was born on October 9, 1919 in Columbia, Mississippi to his happy parents Steve and Lula Abram. He relocated to Oakland, California and later met and married his lovely wife Frances in 1968. The marriage was truly a love filled relationship and an inspiring example of a loving couple in the West Oakland Community and to all who knew them.

Mr. Abs was the attendant for many years at the parking lot directly across from the 7th Street BART station in West Oakland. He was very well known to the many commuters who he greeted each morning with a smile as they parked their cars and went off to work. He was kind and helped thousands start their day with a kind word and one less worry about the safety of their vehicles. He was a wealth of knowledge and loved people. As commuters returned in the evening from their long stressful day at work, they would be greeted by the same smile. Many would stop, talk and relax for a few moments while enjoying his company. He simply made everyone's day better and helped many others in his community. Even after he retired and when his health permitted, he could still be seen at the parking lot enjoying the people. He was preceded in death by his mother, father and his wife.

He leaves wonderful memories that will forever stay in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
