

Larry Terrell Alford

November 9, 1950 - October 31, 2015

Remembering.....

Larry Terrell Alford also known as “LA” was born to the union of Leroy Tigner and Barbara Alford on November 9, 1950, who both preceded him in death as well as his grandmother Mattie Motley (Mama), son Damon Shawn, sisters Mattie Louise and Marie Antoinette, nieces Simone, Shirlawn, and nephew Arnold Marcell. Larry accepted Christ at an early age joining McGee Avenue Baptist Church in Berkeley, CA.

Larry was the first of six children and he was such a precious child that his grandmother (Mama) took him as her own. Larry was educated through the Berkeley Unified School District, and graduated from Berkeley High School. Larry also attended Laney Jr. College studying business.

Larry was employed as a City of Berkeley employee where he enjoyed working with his family members as a sanitation worker. Larry was very family oriented and was always the life of the party. Larry had an outstanding sense of humor all his own and could lighten a situation within a matter of minutes. It was well known within the family that Larry could not wait for you to finish a story without jumping in with his famous, “Man check this out”, followed by “Understand me.”

Well known for keeping his nose turned up, Larry was a gentle teddy bear with an infectious laugh and a loving heart. There is nothing Larry would not do for his family, if there was a problem all you had to do was make a phone call and he was coming.

Larry was also prominent in the lives of many other friends as they all affectionately called him "LA". Larry did not make excuses, he lived life his way and was a natural born leader who was loved dearly and will be missed tremendously. Larry had a lifelong love and very special person in his life, Carolyn Bendy.
