

Lloyd Herndon Harmon

July 25, 1947 - February 25, 2017

Lloyd Herndon Harmon was born July 25, 1946. He was the third child from the union of Lloyd and Jaunita Harmon. His siblings, Tommy, Connie, and David preceded him in death.

He was a Richmond native attending Cortez Elementary, Granada Jr. High School, and graduating Harry Ells High School in 1965. And subsequently joined the United States Air Force where he had the opportunity to not only serve his country proudly, but travel and explore the world. He was stationed in Vietnam and the Philippines for many years before coming back to the Bay Area.

In 1976 he made Oakland, California his home. He worked for Lawrence Berkeley Laboratory as an Electrical Engineer where he worked closely with three Nobel Peace Prize winners during his employment.

Once he set the foundation, he met Debra Ramos and was blessed with four beautiful daughters - Rachele, Nakisha, Christina and Alicia Harmon, whom he loved dearly.

One of his many hobbies that he enjoyed sharing with family and friends was fishing. That would be before or after a good game of dominos. He also enjoyed spending a lot of his time with his grandchildren.

Being a proud "Leo", he treasured his family above any riches and was a strong and loving father figure, provider and "Popa" to each one of his precious grandchildren: Alaya, Eyana, Patrick Jr., Darius, Demetrius, Alonzo and Aleena.

Lloyd will no doubt be greatly missed; but he leaves many family and friends to cherish the memory of his legacy and remember he will always be the life of the party!

“ LLoyd and I went to high school to gather. He always got me in trouble by talking in class. Some times they had to change our seats. I saw him and went to his home with all the kids. He was very special person. I did not get to talk with him as I have been ill, I wanted the best for him. I am sorry now I did not listen to my heart and voice to call him. He was always worried about his heart as it ran he the family. I just now found out in May of his passing. He and I were going together. But, I kept putting it off. I am very upset. My best wishes to his family and mom. He was funny and we would always laugh a lot together.

He would always say I can really only call and talk when my kids are gone. It was a running joke with us. I loved him in my way, He will be missed.
