

Marcus Dandy

October 15, 1972 - November 20, 2020

Marcus was born in San Francisco Ca at the University of California San Francisco Medical Center. Marcus attended St. Patrick's and McClymonds High School in West Oakland and finished his education at Concord High School.

He received Christ at an early age and rededicated his life in 2017.

He was a general laborer and always lent a helping hand to his friends and their business ventures.

Marcus was a 49ers fan and enjoyed music, comedy, and loved his sneakers!

He touched many lives and left a positive impression on everyone he met. He was a loyal friend and brother always offering a listening ear, shoulder to cry on and support of any kind. Marcus was charming and had a way of making you feel special and important. He loved to dance and bring laughter and joy to everyone.
