

Martha Ingram Randle

April 16, 1927 - December 21, 2020

Martha Ingram-Randle was born in Beaumont, Texas on April 16, 1927 to the parents of William Rudd and Melissa Coleman-Goodwill.

She attended school in Beaumont, Texas. After graduating high school, she moved to San Francisco in 1952 with her mother. Martha subsequently matriculated from cosmetology school and received her state license. Martha had a natural affinity for style and beauty her entire life.

Martha was introduced to Christ at an early age. She joined El Bethel Missionary Baptist Church, San Francisco, California in 1959 under the leadership of the late Rev. D. Manning Jackson. Martha loved the Lord and served with a smile and Joy in her heart until her health began to fail.

She was a dedicated member of Sunday School and Mission Auxiliary, but her love was serving on the Usher Board. Martha had been a member of the El Bethel Usher Board for more than 50 years, serving as President for many terms.

Martha also served on the district and state level and was recognized over the United States with many awards. Martha always had a great passion for ushering, so not only was she involved with ushering at her local church, but in 1964 she became a member of the district usher board called the Tri-City Ushers Alliance District. There she served as instructor, and Usher President. She was eager to advance in ushering, so she joined the Union Usher Board State of California. She held many offices on the state level, such as Instructor, Supervisor, State President and an honorary title of President

Emeritus, which she held until her passing. Advancing more in ushering she worked on the Western Region in several capacities. She worked in the highest level of ushering in the level called National Church Ushers. Martha had a true passion for Ushering.

Martha loved to cook gumbo and was known for her superior palate. She enjoyed time with her husband, Hubert Randle. They travelled and shared many outings to soul food restaurants. She joined the Courts of Calanthe, Grand Court Order, Texas. Martha was a socialite and enjoyed community service.

Preceded in death are Martha's parents: William, Melissa; husband, Hubert Randle; three sisters: Mary Levigne, Dorothy Boone, Betty Johnson.

She leaves to cherish her memory, sister, Fhelma Owens of Los Angeles; godson/nephew, Herman Boone; a host of nieces and nephews.
