

Mary Louise Martin

February 2, 1921 - May 11, 2011

Mary L. Martin was born to the late Asbury and Mattie Lee Cane on February 2, 1921 in Pine Bluff, Arkansas. She was the second of seven children and professed a hope in Christ at an early age.

She married James Martin on August 3, 1939. She was a devoted wife to James Martin, who was a soldier in the United States Army until his untimely death on May 1, 1944.

After the death of James Martin she moved to California and enrolled in nursing school. She worked at Veterans Hospital in Oakland, California after graduating. She subsequently transferred to Martinez Veteran Hospital after the closure of Veterans Hospital in Oakland.

Mary was a much loved and dedicated nurse to all who knew her.

Mary's life was busy and active; she was a member of the Elks and Mordenets Social Club. On many occasions she enjoyed fishing and members of her family and friends.

Mary departed this life on May 11, 2011 peacefully at her home in Berkeley, California.
