

Pearlie Mae Madison

June 20, 1926 - November 29, 2015

Pearlie Mae was born June 20, 1926 in Rosston, Arkansas to the proud parents, Minister James W. and Beatrice Moss. From this union were born eight children of which she was sixth.

Pearlie received her education and graduated from High school in Arkansas. In 1943 she met Troy lee Madison, from this union were born six children. In 1944 after the birth of their first child, Pearlie and Troy moved west where they made Berkeley their new home.

No good home is worth anything without a solid foundation. Pearlie Mae knew this and made Berkeley Mt. Zion Baptist Church that foundation from which her spiritual home would be built. Sis. Pearlie Mae confessed Christ at an early age and was an active member of Berkeley Mt. Zion, where she sang in the choir and could be found every Sunday until she could no longer drive her Cadillac there (and even still she tried a few times).

She went to work for Del Monte Cannery and Safeway from which she retired. Pearle “unofficially” ran the Albany Safeway for more than 20 years. She was no stranger to hard work and made sure that you weren’t either. Pearlie Mae preached about education and embodied a strong work ethic which she instilled in her children, grandchildren and many others. She also knew how to make her dollars count. Even if it meant piling up every grand and great grandchild in her car and riding to Pic N Pac, Safeway, or Andronico’s (whichever had the coupons). Motha or Grandma Pearlle as she was affectionately known by her family and loved ones had a limitless love for all. Her home was definitely a central hub during the holidays. Thanksgiving started off the season and her dressing was the star of the show. Aside from her dressing nothing shined brighter than her house at Christmas time. Every year her Christmas display grew bigger and brighter. People were known to have driven down her street just to see what she had done that year. Her light will forever be missed.....

Waiting to welcome her home is: Husband (Troy Lee Madison), Father (Minister James W. Moss), Mother (Beatrice Moss), Brothers: Arell and J.W. Moss, Sisters: Queenester Moss, Evelyn Bonner, Gladys Beasley, Morell Posey, Children: James Madison and Betty Robinson and Grandson: Billy Madison
