“ So sorry we did I/we didn't stay in touch after 89, you just seemed to disappear & not contact anyone in our Burroughs family (we were & still are all close). We all feel your loss & remember all those yrs in NY, San Fran & Lompoc. Missed you before & still miss you even more now. Have so many pics I would love to send to your family. See you in another life! Love, Maude (lol)

“ I met Rex in 1982. He opened my palate to the great authentic food in Xhinatown NYC
Lots of fun Friday nights. He was also proud of his Taiwanese Little League badeball team. They dominated in those years. I will never forget when he boujlt the Transam from our boss
Not really a good choice 🤔. I will miss knowing that there's no chance now to ever relive those moments. He was special to all who knew him.

I'm glad I saw this Bob, so surreal.
