

Robert Lee Ford

November 14, 2023

Robert L. Ford Sr., best known to his family as Archie, was born in Homer, Louisiana on Christmas Day 12/25/1939 to Floyd and Pearleener Ford. Born the 7th child of 8 children, Robert was a loving son and brother. Robert lived in Berkeley, California for over 70 years. In 1961 he married Clovis (Carlton) Ford. They remained married for 62 years

L. Ford, Jr., Marvin V. Ford, Lessa R. Ford, Derrick M. Ford, and Cherie R. (Ford) Barnes.

Robert happily retired after working 45 years as an ILWU Local 10 Longshoreman at the Port of Oakland. He enjoyed music, working with his hands, building and fixing things, watching sports, Basketball, Football and Track & Field. He also enjoyed exercising.

Robert was a man of many skills and talents. He could do, build, or fix anything. He was a kind, quiet humble man who was always willing to help anyone who asked. He was always available to give words of wisdom, advice or share his knowledge with anyone who needed it. He was a loving son, brother, father, and friend who could always be depended on by everyone who knew him.

Robert is survived by his loving wife of 62 years, Clovis Ford, his 5 children, Robert L. Ford Jr., Marvin Ford, Lessa Ford, Derrick Ford, and Cherie (Ford) Barnes and 1 sister, Dorothy (Ford) Hill and a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Robert was an ncredibly special man who is loved by many and will truly be missed.
