

RogeAnne Michela Davis

February 17, 1951 - May 31, 2011

On February 17, 1951 RogeAnne Michela Reuben was born to Roger Reuben and Eddie Mae Davis. She attended St. Nicholas Catholic School in Buffalo, New York, and graduated from Benett High School in Buffalo, New York. She continued her formal education at various institutions.

RogeAnne met and married Harold Davis and to this union two sons, Demiz' Muhammad and Harold "Hassan" Davis were born.

RogeAnne had a special love for children and spent her career as a childcare provider until her health no longer allowed her to do so.

RogeAnne united with the Liberty Hill Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Ellis. After visiting the Berkeley Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church under the Rev. Dr. M. T. Thompson, she became a member and remained under the leadership of Pastor Teacher Brian D. Hunter. She was a faithful member of the Berkeley Mount Zion Choir (United Voices) and member of the Naomi Circle.

RogeAnne was a very comical person. She always stated when asked how she was doing, "I am not pregnant." And if you asked her a question concerning a person's name and she didn't know their name her answer was, "uh huh." When driving she was never lost and you ask her, "Where are we?"

She would answer, "Right here."

Preceding her in death are her husband, Harold Davis Sr.; stepfather, Joseph Poitier; nephew, Maurice Terry McFarland; mother, Eddie Mae Poitier; father, Roger Reuben; brother, John Jerry, Jr.; grandmothers; Ivory Lee Bristow and Minnie Allen.
