Remembering.....

RUBY DAVIS was born on June 6, 1937 in Asheville, North Carolina to George Maybin and Theodosia Harley. As a teenager, Ruby and her twin sister Ruth moved to California where she attended Prescott, McClymonds and Castlemont High School.

She later met and married the love of her life, Percy Davis and from this union, one son, Chris Davis was born. Ruby worked for 25 years and was well known by many at Neldams Bakery in Oakland where she retired in 1992. She enjoyed spending time with her family, especially her two grandchildren, Brianna and Mya. She also had a special bond with her only sister and identical twin, Ruth. She was also blessed to have a loving daughter in law, Veronica Davis, who helped to care for her when she became ill.

She was preceded in death by her parents, George Maybin and Theodosia Smith and her husband, Percy Davis.

Ruby is survived by her son, Chris Davis (wife Veronica); sister Ruth Smith (husband Portland); grandchildren Brianna and Mya Davis; cousin Zane Wilson (husband Prince) five nieces and four nephews; and a host of family and friends.

Ruby will be dearly missed.

A precious one from us has gone

A voice we love is stilled

A place is vacant in the house

Which never can be filled

And after a lonely heartache

And many a silent tears

But always a beautiful memory

Of one we love so dear
