

Samuel Lee Kennon

April 6, 1953 - July 10, 2021

Samuel Lee Kennan Sr. was born on April 6, 1953, in Berkeley, California to Clarissa Kennon Callin. He attended Oakland Schools, Havenscort and Golden Gate, and graduated from Berkeley High School. He attended the vocational school, The Skill Center, and learned welding. He became a master welder. Samuel enjoyed making candy at Sees Candy along with other trades. He called himself "Sam the Handyman". His grandfather taught him how to work on cars. Samuel fell in love with fast automobiles and relaxing with a fishing rod.

Samuel processed Christ as his Lord and Savior and was a member of Faith Presbyterian Church. He was an active member of the congregation. He sang in the choir and served on the Deacon Board.

Samuel stayed connected with his community throughout his life. He enjoyed hanging out with what he called his "Crew" from Berkeley High School.

Samuel will truly be missed by his family, friends and community.

Preceded in death is his grandfather, Willy Jefferson Kennon, and sister, Alfreda Kennan.

Samuel leaves to cherish his memories, mother, Clarissa Kennon Callin (Richmond); sons: Samuel Lee Kennon, II (Bay Point), Christopher Kennon (Los Angeles); daughters: Tanisha Kennon (Kansas City), Roshana Kennon (Los Angeles); sister, Wanda Lewis (Oakland); nieces: Adrienne Thomas (Oakland), Carnish Thomas (Oakland), Corel Kennon Day (Turlock), and a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren.
