

Santiago McNair

April 13, 2023

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me at that day: and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for His appearing.”

II Timothy 4:7

Santiago McNair, the son of the late Cora McNair, was born July 3rd, 1954 in Washington, DC(?). As a young child, Sandy had many family members and friends who counted on him for fun, laughter, kindness and, as always, his infectious smile. Aunt Cora, his mom, left Washington, DC with Sandy in tow and made California their permanent home. Sandy received his formal education in the public schools of San Francisco. At an early age, Sandy accepted Christ into his life and attended church with his mom regularly. His Christian education and faith laid the foundation for the kind, thoughtful, compassionate, and loving man that Sandy always was. Sandy faced challenges during his life, but was always a gentle soul, who loved his family deeply. Santiago was preceded in death by his mom, Cora E. McNair. Those who remain to cherish his memory are his children, Monique Nicole McNair, Matthieu James McNair, Amanda McNair and

Santiago McNair Jr., several dear friends, and a host of cousins on the east coast.