

Shirley Ann Holland

May 1, 1936 - December 27, 2021

Shirley Ann Holland was born from the union of Herbert Sanders and Lurline Gray on May 1, 1936 in Carthage, Texas. She moved to California in her junior high school years and graduated from Galileo High School, San Francisco, California in the 1950's. Her father, Mr. Sanders, owned a store in Detroit which drew her there for new opportunities, while there she became a licensed barber.

Shirley returned to California to pursue a nursing career. Shirley became a certified LVN, and her career lasted over 40 years. Also, Shirley loved children and decided to open up a family daycare which she ran for many years.

Shirley and her husband, Sheridan, had their dream home custom built in Manteca California, in 1986. She enjoyed quilting and baking custom desserts for her loved ones. Every Thanksgiving, family and friends looked forward to her baked goods. Shirley was a devoted Christian, who worked in the church in several capacities, she was a Deaconness, taught Sunday school, and on occasions sung in the choir. Her desire to do good and her love for cooking, she prepared meals for the homeless on a weekly basis with her church members. Shirley was blessed to have five grandchildren and she enjoyed and loved them immensely. She helped and encouraged them to pursue their education and to be upstanding people. Shirley had a beautiful smile and soft voice and because of that she had many friends, and she never met a stranger.
