

Tamela Cheree Copeland

March 21, 1967 - January 18, 2015

Remembering.....

Tamela Cheree Copeland was born on March 21, 1967 to the proud parents Mildred and Dixie Copeland. She accepted Christ at an early age, joining McGee Baptist Church and Church of the Living God. Tamela attended Parochial Saint Joseph's Elementary School in Berkeley, CA where she played soft ball, ran track and excelled in her academic studies. She later accepted to attend Parochial Presentation High School in Berkeley, Ca. She attended Vista College and the University of California, Berkeley. Tamela loved studying French and History and would often have discussion with her younger brother David, but most of all her passion was poetry. Tamela loved her family and just being around them.

In 2002 Tamela gave birth to a beautiful baby girl named Alaisha whom she loved dearly. There was nothing "Tammy" wouldn't do for her. Alaisha was Tammy world those two were inseparable.

Tamela Copeland departed this life in January 18, 2015 and was preceded in death by her loving parents Mildred and Dixie Copeland; Grandmother Alneda Garth; three cousins Carla Garth, Karen Johnson of Oakland, CA.
