Theresa was born February 4, 1939 to Willie and Lucy Bell in Birmingham, Alabama. She accepted Christ at the age of 12 and united with New Zion Baptist Church where S. H. Ravizee was pastor. She was educated in the Bessemer Public School system and attended Alabama A&M University in Huntsville, AL.

She moved to St. Louis, Missouri in 1961. There she united with Leonard Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor W. E. W. Brown. In St. Louis, she met and united in holy matrimony with Joseph Charles Boyd. She gave birth to two beautiful daughters, Charmagne Denise Belle and Marquette Yvette Boyd.

The family relocated to Oakland, California and Theresa united with New Hope Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. James T. McCullum. She was an active member of the Ada Sunday School class, The Mass Choir and served as the devotional leader for the Women's Missionary Union 5Th Sunday programs. Theresa was a dedicated member of the Trustee ministry for many years. She dedicated her life to the work of the Lord and served faithfully until her home going on January 28, 2013.

After 36 years of service with the United States Postal service, Theresa decided to hang up her postal uniform and retire.

Theresa was not only a loving mother to her children, Charmagne and Yvette, she was also a mother figure, "Madea", and role model to many in the church and her community. She was a mother to Oh So Many and she extended the love and grace of God to everyone.

Her smile, her sass, her expressive personality will be missed though never forgotten.
