“ I only learned recently of Vernon's passing as we lost touch from our college days. I wanted to share these memories.

The smile was big and contagious, with a trace of laughter in the voice that carried though the dormitory halls. I was one of the cadre of the 2nd floor Broome Hall freshman class. Vernon was one of the ring leaders of mischief and mayhem. Water fight with Chenango Hall? Vernon was one of the first to grab his metal waste basket and start filling it up. Spring ritual of throwing people into the pond? Vernon was most assuredly among the first in and then hands on throwing everyone else in.

He was fun-loving and kind-hearted. Quick to laugh and always ready to be there for and with friends. In my many fond memories of freshman year, Vernon is there with a smile. That brilliant smile.

A bright star has gone up to the sky, winking at us every night. And in heaven, well, with Vernon there it has most assuredly has gotten more boisterous with a lot more mischief going on!

“ My sincere condolences to his family and friends.

I was trying to locate Vernon, having been a friend from Martin Van Buren High School back in the very early 70s. I'm so saddened to hear of his passing.

Rest in peace, Vernon.

“ I knew Vernon well back in my 20's when he worked at the United Way of Hartford and I was an intern at the United Way of New Britain. We were part of a fun and loving group of friends with similar values and a zest for life. Vernon will always be in my heart - I loved his huge smile, his infectious laugh, his love for others, and his deep caring for the world. I've thought of him many times over the years, always with a smile on my face. He was that kind of person who made a difference in your life and who you'll never forget. Rest in peace my dear friend.

I went to college with Vernon; we lived on the same floor in the dorm and were good friends, but lost touch afterwards. He was a very funny, charming person and I have many fond memories of hanging out with him at school. I am so sad that he is gone from this world. He was a very special person.

Yes he was a very special person. I will miss running into him in the 37 muni line. He always remembered our conversations and always asked about my estranged partner and my mother. He was a very special person
