

Vesta Marie Cummings

August 1, 1939 - April 4, 2014

Vesta Marie Cummings born on August 1, 1939 in Corsicana, Texas. She was the only child of Mr. Velton Stewart and Mrs. Mozelle Robinson-Stewart. When Vesta was three years of age, the family moved to the Bay Area and for a short period lived in Oakland and subsequently relocated to Berkeley where the family remained until their deaths.

While growing up in Berkeley, Vesta was active in tap dance, piano, swimming and tennis while attending Franklin Elementary, Burbank Junior High and Berkeley High School, graduating in 1957. After High School, she attended Contra Costa College in San Pablo and in later years, Laney College of Oakland and University of California at Santa Cruz.

During her professional career, she held a variety of positions at several organizations, which included Pacific Telephone, Oakland Unified Schools, the Department of Energy, Volunteers of America and retired as a home care provider.

As a member of New Hope Baptist Church in Oakland and Liberty Hill Baptist in Berkeley, she served as a Sunday school teacher as well as a mentor to youth in the community. Her community involvement did not end there, she also provided housing, food and money for those in need as well as support and care for the elderly.
