

Wilma Sandhu

May 3, 1941 - December 17, 2011

Wilma Sandhu was born in Livingston Texas on may 3m, 1941 to the loving union of Jewel and Ben Ivory. Wilma accepted Christ as her personal savior and was baptized at an early age,when she moved to California.

Wilma graduated from Oakland Technical High School and attended Alameda College.

Wilma was united in marriage to Charles Johnson and they had three children. Wilma was later married to Cookie Sandhu in India.

Wilma loved sewing, knitting, crotching and was always read to teach others.

She was considered an excellent detailed seamstress/tailor. Wilma was a doll maker and basically she could do anything related to crafts. She also loved bingo and going to the Richmond Casino where she loved the slot machines.

Wilma worked as a dog groomer and she loved animals. Wilma worked for the US Post Office for over thirty years. She was a dedicated employee and was a supervisor.

When Wilma retired from the Post Office she traveled. She also enjoyed going to sewing and quilting retreats.

Wilma was preceded in death by her father, Ben Ivory, her mother Jewel Birden, sister Clara Parker, daughter Antoinette Johnson and her son Charles Johnson Jr.
